Our 37th ANNUAL MIDWINTER DINNER will be held on Thursday, March 10, 2015 at 6:15 P.M.. The location is LOEB HOUSE (the president’s house in our day, next to Emerson Hall). The Faculty Club is undergoing renovations.

This will be the 37th consecutive year we will have had this dinner (1980 was the first) -- an important record in Harvard Alumni Association, which by definition can’t be topped so long as we keep going. This dinner is an event which has provided warmth and friendship over these many years, and also helps make the establishment of effective reunion committees very easy indeed.

Due to price increases, we can no longer subsidize complementary wine. But we still have complimentary parking at the Broadway Garage at 7 Felton Street: just tell them you are going to the 1964 Loeb House dinner.

We’ve retained the “split” menu as you’ll see below. There is always a vegetarian choice.

Please send in the form below to our Class Treasurer postmarked by Monday March 7th, but note a discount for early response by Saturday February 20th.

We look forward to seeing a great crowd on March 10th!
